

Centre for Air Power Studies (CAPS)

Forum for National Security Studies (FNSS)

Dr. Joshy M Paul is working as Research Fellow at the Centre for Airpower Studies(CAPS), New Delhi, focusing on Chinese Navy. He has fifteen years of research-cum-academic experience on Asian Security, East Asian Affairs and Maritime Security of the Indo-Pacific. Before joining CAPS, he worked as an Assistant Professor at the Department of International Studies, School of Law, Christ University, Bangalore, and also with a premier naval think tank, National Maritime Foundation, New Delhi. He has published a number of articles in reputed journals which include India Review, South Asian Survey, International Studies, Air Power Journal, and Maritime Affairs. He has been RSIS MacArthur Associate Visiting Fellow (Singapore) in 2010, NIDS Visiting Research Fellow (Japan) in 2011, and Salzburg Global Seminar Fellow in 2009, 2015 & 2021. He earned an M Phil and Ph D in International Politics from CIPOD, School of International Studies, Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi.